'She lived simply, didn't have a fancy car'

By El Berganza, with R. Arevalo and Dora C. Torres

MY FIRST VISIT TO THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ARTS (MOMA) was a surprise. I had never been to the museum before, and I was not sure if I would like it. But I was curious to see the collection of modern art, and I was not disappointed. The museum is a treasure trove of art, and I was able to see some of the most important works of the 20th century. I was particularly impressed by the collection of African art, which was displayed in a way that was both informative and beautiful.

Don't use victory parade for politics, pols warned

By Luis R. Sarmiento

PHILIPPINE POLS ARE THE LAST OF A LONG LINE OF LEADERS who have used their victory parade to make political statements. The parade is a tradition that has been used by many leaders to celebrate their victory and to make political statements. However, some political analysts warn that the parade should not be used as a platform for political statements, as it may lead to a loss of focus on the issues that the country faces.

THE PUBLIC DESERVES TO KNOW

What the Shell Tax issue is all about

Recently, the public has heard of the issue regarding alleged non-payment by Filipino Shell Petroleum Corporation (PSPC) of excise taxes for imports of Catalytic Cracked Gasoline (CCG) and light catalytic cracked gasoline (LCCG), amounting to P13.33 billion for the years 2004-09. To correct the misleading, inaccurate and wrong statements that have been made regarding this case, PSPC would like to provide the public the facts of the case:

1. "Other Petroleum Firms are paying their excise tax, but not Shell" - This is not true. Shell, like all other petroleum firms, pays excise taxes on all its finished products to the government. From 2004-2009, Shell has paid over P37 billion in excise taxes for its finished products. On the other hand, finished product importers like Chevron, Total, and other independent players pay excise taxes to the Bureau of Customs (BOC) upon importation, but do not pay the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) excise tax on the same finished products before they are sold to the public. The difference then is when and to whom the tax payment is made to, and not the amount. Shell does not pay excise tax to the BOC on CCG/LCCG because like crude oil, these are intermediate or raw materials. However, Shell pays to the BIR excise taxes on all finished products that are produced from the raw materials, before the finished products are sold. There are, therefore, no revenue losses to the government. Finished product importers pay excise tax to BOC, while refiners pay excise tax to BIR.

2. "The position of BOC is that LCCG and CCG are finished products and that's why (Shell) should resolve and not muddy the issue" - As early as 2003, the Department of Energy (DOE), which is the agency with the technical expertise to determine whether a product is a raw material or a finished product, testified and certified that CCG/LCCG is an intermediate or raw gasoline component that is blended to produce PSPC's gasoline to comply with the Clean Air Act (CAA). The Product National Standards (PNS) specifications will also show that CCG/LCCG do not meet the product specifications requirements, and therefore, cannot be sold as finished products. Then the BOC's Verification Committee admitted that Shell has not sold CCG/LCCG to the public but instead uses it as blending component.

3. "There is fraud on the part of Shell since when they imported the product, they listed them as BOC as gasoline, but when Shell goes to BIR it is declaring the imports as raw material" - This is not true. There is no fraud as we have always stated that CCG/LCCG is a kind of gasoline, but which cannot be used in its current specification and has to be blended with other components to meet the Clean Air Act and PNS standards for gasoline. It is therefore an intermediate or raw material.

4. "Shell is blackmailing the government by threatening to stop importing, shut down their refinery and claiming there will be shortages if BOC values their importations" - Shell is not blackmailing the government. We are simply stating the fact that if BOC had seized our importations, we will have no raw materials to run the refinery and no products to sell. As Shell supplies 30% of the market, it will not be easy for the other oil companies to step into the void. We do not want this to happen but for purposes of transparency, we have to let the public and government know the consequences of the BOC's arbitrary action. In fact, even before the 60-day TRO issued by the CIA against Belingones Customs Collector Juan Tan attempted to unlawfully use Section 1506 of the Tariff Code to seize PSPC's goods, despite the fact that the shipments of crude oil, CCG and gas oil were already in the possession of PSPC and all taxes have been paid to Customs. Section 1506 does not authorize Customs to seize property or goods of PSPC, but only incoming importations, yet BOC Collector Tan attempted to unlawfully confiscate PSPC's property having PSPC to obtain judicial relief from the Regional Trial Court of Belingones.

5. "Shell is getting special treatment by getting tax exemption as a result of the BIR ruling in 2003" - This is not true. As discussed in item 1 above, Shell has been paying all the excise taxes on its finished products. In fact, as a result of BIR Commissioner Joel Tan-Tan's reversal, Shell is now the only company paying excise upon importation starting January 2010. The House of Representatives Committee on Ways and Means, the lead congressional committee for tax legislation, has issued an official report last January 27, 2010 that found that the Tan-Tan reversal is an imposition of an impermissible act of double taxation on Shell's imports of Catalytic Cracked Gasoline (CCG) and Light Catalytic Cracked Gasoline (LCCG) since it "in effect levies an excise tax twice on CCG and LCCG, first as raw materials upon withdrawal from the port of entry and second as components of a finished product upon withdrawal from PSPC's refinery." The Committee held that the imposition of the said double taxation is "a naked, arbitrary, and whimsical abuse of administrative power by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and a usurpation of the power to tax solely vested in Congress by the Comptroller."

We express grave concern on the actions by the BOC and the BIR for the following reasons:

1. The Tan-Tan reversal results in double taxation (the imposition of excise tax on the both the imported raw materials used and in the finished products), which not only puts PSPC in an uneven playing field compared to other oil players, but more importantly:
 - A. reflects instability in government policies (with dangerous precedent set due to retroactive application); and
 - B. results in a policy implication of discouraging manufacturing investment in the country, destroying the higher value added that the industry contributes.
2. The issue similarly reflects abuse of seizure power against importers on unrelated tax assessments.

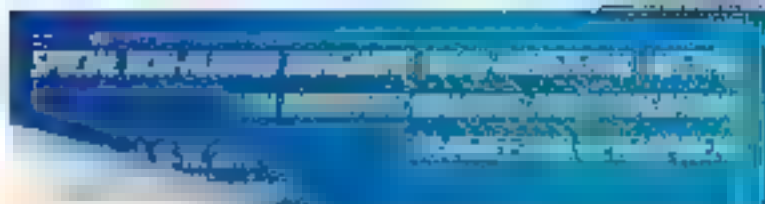

Shell's Business Principles have for many years been fundamental to how we conduct our business and we have always believed that living by them is crucial to our continued success. We believe that our reputation, which we have built and protected for many decades, will be upheld if we act in accordance with the law and these business principles.

As above, Filipino Shell Petroleum Corporation maintains that we have paid all taxes on CCG, and that there are no factual and legal bases for saying otherwise. Shell has consistently been in the Top 10 Taxpayers list of the government and over the last 5 years, our annual tax payments has averaged about P 20 billion per year.

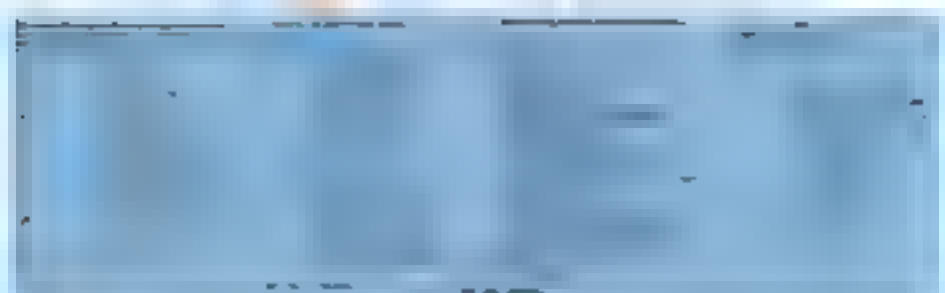

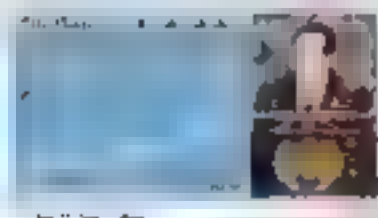

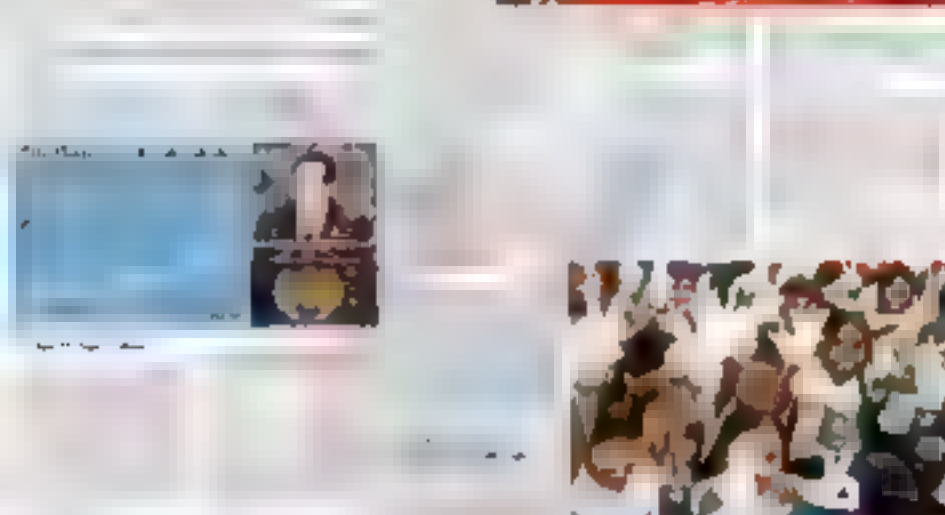

Shell will continue to uphold all available legal remedies for the immediate resolution of this important issue. This issue is important for us, and as part of our business principles, it is also our duty to provide the public with accurate and truthful information, in the spirit of fairness and transparency.

The public deserves to know.

IF HEALTH DEFINES LIFE AND ITS QUALITY

shouldn't health be a top priority in this political campaign?

Have we heard enough on health from the candidates we plan to vote for?

O masaya na toyo sa mga pangalan ng libreng gamot, libreng ospital, malahan sa kahirapan, at walang corruption?

There are many who want to give important issues more priority. The issue of health care is not only a top priority for many but also a top priority for the people. The health care providers, the hospitals, the suppliers, the regulators and policymakers, and the health care system, all of them, during their own agenda.

Most of the health care providers are not only the health care providers but also the health care providers. The health care providers are not only the health care providers but also the health care providers. The health care providers are not only the health care providers but also the health care providers.

The Philippine College of Physicians invites the public to

WE CAN PIPELINE

A MESSAGE TO OUR VALUABLE CUSTOMERS

Many of you may have noticed that for the past few days, a number of your favorite Goldilocks products have not been available at our stores or some of your cable orders have been delayed or stopped. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this has caused and would like to request for your brief patience since this temporary setback may continue in the next few coming days.

Despite our company's rigorous and quality manufacturing measures, a handful of former Goldilocks employees continue to wage a mass action in front of our production plants. We have given these protesting former employees every opportunity to reason the propriety of their actions, but they have chosen to continue to harass our deliveries and prevent our legitimate employees from entering their place of work.

This situation stems from an NLRB (National Labor Relations Board) decision last May 1993 declaring illegal a previous mass action staged by a union labor group. The same decision ordered the termination from employment of certain workers who engaged in illegal activities during said mass action and the union officers who instigated it.

Despite having every legal right to do so, Goldilocks decided not to withdraw the affected employees immediately in deference to their right to work representation of the NLRB decision. On January 28, 2010, however, the NLRB issued its decision stating a threat for discrimination. Thus the NLRB affirmed their earlier decision, and once again ordered Goldilocks to terminate the wrong employees.

Even then, the company suspended the group again only to stage a temporary work stoppage (TWO) from the date of suspension to prevent the representation of the NLRB. Unfortunately, they did not stop any efforts at all in regard to the threat for discrimination and they also stage the mass action and instead closed its stores yet another illegal group action (THREE) in March 2010. Again, the company had no other choice but to suspend its right to withdraw the NLRB ruling.

We believe that the findings of the NLRB speak for itself. You may demand a copy of the exact ruling of your Goldilocks labor stoppage and see that the NLRB has determined with finality that any alleged labor grievances of the labor group are unfounded and unwarranted.

Although this situation has temporarily hampered our operations, you are valuable customers and within our utmost priority. Rest assured, we have been working non-stop to implement every possible contingency to serve your needs. Once again, we would like to appeal for your understanding and continued support.

Goldilocks has always maintained a working environment that is superior, fair and considers therefore we cannot allow the self-interest of a labor union to jeopardize the safety, welfare, and livelihood of the greater part of our employees. Therefore, we will not allow these actions to affect the relationship we have fostered with the Filipino community for more than 40 years.

Figure 1 displays 25 small images arranged in a 5x5 grid, showing various stages of larval development. The images are labeled with numbers 1 through 25, indicating a sequence of developmental stages. The larvae are shown in different orientations and positions, highlighting the progression of growth and differentiation.

1. The Commission has received information from the Government of the Republic of the Philippines that the Government is planning to conduct a series of military operations in the area of the Philippine Sea, which is a part of the South China Sea. The Commission is concerned that these operations may result in the displacement of a large number of people, and it is therefore requesting the Government to provide information on the number of people who are expected to be displaced, and on the measures that are being taken to ensure that they are adequately protected and assisted.

 - Stimulus duration
- Response:
 - Response onset
 - Response duration

Arrows indicate the temporal sequence: Stimulus onset → Stimulus duration → Response onset → Response duration. A feedback arrow points from the end of the response back to the stimulus onset.

LTO: Shortage of license plates, stickers almost over

By Paolo R. Montano

THE LTO'S shortage of license plates and stickers is almost over, according to a report from the Department of Transportation (DOTr). The LTO has been struggling with the shortage for several months, but the DOTr says that the problem is now being resolved. The LTO has been able to secure a new contract with the manufacturer of the plates and stickers, and the shortage is expected to be resolved by the end of the year.

Journalism a vocation, not a profession

Journalism is a vocation, not a profession, according to a recent article in the Metro. The article discusses the challenges of journalism in the Philippines and the need for a strong sense of purpose and commitment among journalists. It argues that journalism is not just a job, but a calling that requires a deep understanding of the issues at hand and a willingness to stand up for the truth.

The article also discusses the importance of ethics in journalism and the need for journalists to be transparent and honest in their reporting. It argues that journalism is a public service and that journalists have a responsibility to the public to provide accurate and unbiased information. The article concludes by stating that journalism is a vocation, not a profession, and that it requires a strong sense of purpose and commitment.

Bloggers battle corruption in Russia

MOSCOW (AP) —

Bloggers in Russia are using the Internet to fight corruption, a move that has drawn the attention of the Kremlin. The bloggers are part of a movement called "Anticorruption" and are using the Internet to expose corrupt officials and their activities. The movement has gained momentum in recent months, with bloggers posting stories of corruption on websites like "Anticorruption.ru" and "Anticorruption.org". The Kremlin has responded by cracking down on the bloggers, with some being arrested and others facing legal action. The bloggers, however, are not deterred and continue to post stories of corruption.

False Russian television broadcast punishes Georgia

Georgian television viewers were shocked by a false broadcast that showed Russian soldiers in Georgia. The broadcast was a hoax, but it caused a significant reaction in Georgia. The Russian government has denied the broadcast, but the damage has been done. The incident has led to a loss of trust in the Russian media and has also led to a loss of trust in the Russian government. The Russian government has tried to downplay the incident, but the damage is done. The incident has also led to a loss of trust in the Russian media and has also led to a loss of trust in the Russian government.
